

Joanna Jarecka-Gomez

Mrs. Joanna Jarecka Gomez was appointed Head of the EPP Group International Relations Service in 2010 after having served as Head of Interparliamentary Delegations Unit for three years and previously as Adviser in the Parliamentary Work Service with responsibility in the Foreign Affairs Committee.

Joanna had previously worked in the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs Committee of the European Parliament where she worked as an Administrator covering, in particular, the process of EU enlargement involving a number of central and eastern European countries as well as Turkey.

Before joining the European Parliament she worked for the UN, International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna.

Joanna Jarecka Gomez, born in Cracow (Poland), graduated from the Faculty of Romanic Philology at the Jagellonian University in Cracow and pursued her studies in Vienna (Philosophy) and in Brussels (Political Sciences) where she obtained Masters in International Politics.

Languages: mother tongue Polish

Other languages: fluent French, English, German, Spanish, Russian and intermediate Italian